Dear Jennifer Lalumondier:

This is in response to your letter referencing the renewal of our yearly contract with you for HVAC air filters for the school district. As always, we are interested in renewing this contract for the upcoming year beginning on March 19, 2020. Enclosed is our confirmation that we would like to renew with a slight increase of 4% above the current pricing. We have experienced a 4-12% increase over the past year in raw materials, manufacturing costs, and the associated inbound transportation rates. As part of our commitment to ensuring low prices to our valued customers, we have attempted to reduce any increases to the smallest amount possible and absorb what we are able to ourselves.

We truly appreciate our long-standing relationship with you and hope that you will find this proposal acceptable.

Sincerely,

Dear valued customers,

During the 4th quarter of 2019, raw material costs increased by as little as 3% on some items, to as much as 19% on other items.

We have absorbed these increases, held our prices to our customers, and maintained the level of service and quality that is expected of our company.

Pricing increases are never a welcomed announcement, but we find ourselves in the position of having to pass along a small portion of the increased cost of doing business with you, our valued customer.

Effective March 2nd, pricing on all products will be increased by 3%. Please make those persons within your sales, customer service and purchasing departments aware of this change. Hard copies of the revised list pricing manual will be mailed in the next week to ten days. An electronic version will be available on February 10th. Your inside sales administrator can send this to you via email on or after the 10th.

It is only through our continued efforts to increase the efficiencies of our production departments that we are able to keep our increases to your company at a minimum.

Thank you for your continued interest in Airflow Products Company, and in the goods and services that we provide. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have questions or concerns relative to this issue.

Best regards,

Jeff
